During the past Session a change was introduced with regard to the hours of meeting, the usual lectures before Christmas being timed for 5.15 p.m., after Christmas for 8 p.m. This change was made to meet the strongly expressed wishes of many members of the Society, but it was felt that the later hour had been so long the practice that a compromise was desirable as an experiment.

The Council and Officers ventured, therefore, to hope that all members of the Society would help them to make the present Session a success. It was added that at this date Philosophical Societies in many towns had reached a difficult stage in their careers, but it was to be hoped that by adapting itself to the changed conditions of residence and times of leisure, this Society might increase the valuable work for which it was well known in the past.

The earlier hour also furnished an opportunity for the members of the Council and of the Society to meet in the Library before the lecture, but the experiment was discouraging.

The arrangement by which lectures have been given to the members of the Society by the Staff of the University has been continued. The lecture by the Vice-Chancellor on "The Influence of France and Germany on English Education" was followed by two series of evening lectures, one on "Modern Germany" and another on "The Influence of France on England." For the second year in succession a series of University Extension Lectures was delivered at 5.15 p.m. For admission to this series the members of the Society were charged a reduced fee to meet the extra expenses.

The attendances at the University Extension Lectures were not as large as in the previous year.

The lectures were as follows:—

By A. W. SCHÜDDEKOPF, M.A., Ph.D. "Modern Germany."

- 1.—"Establishment and Constitution of the German Empire." Oct. 29th, 1912.
- 2.—"Administration and Institutions." (Army, Navy, Education, Laws, &c.) Nov. 12th, 1912.
- 3.—"Commercial and Industrial Development." Nov. 26th, 1912.
- 4.—"Political Development." Dec. 10th, 1912.
- 5.—"Religion, Philosophy, Art and Literature." Jan. 7th, 1913.

By PAUL BARBIER, filis, M.A. "The Influence of France on England."

- 1.—"The influence of French Literature on English Literature." Jan. 21st, 1913.
- 2.—"The influence of the French Language on the English Language." Jan. 28th, 1913.
- 3.—"French influences upon English Life." Feb. 11th, 1913.
- 4.—"Present tendencies in French Literature." Feb. 25th, 1913.

The Society helped in the illustration of the lectures on "The Evolution of Landscape Painting" by contributing over forty lantern slides of pictures, several of which were coloured by hand.

The Society has lost by death the Hon. W. A. B. Gellibrand, Tasmania, one of its Honorary Members, and at one time a member of the House of Legislature. Mr. Gellibrand was a generous donor to the collections, and was elected as an Honorary Member in 1871.

By the death of Mr. Henry March the Society has lost an active Member who was always willing to subscribe for the purchase of coins for the collections or for kindred objects. Selections of his series of Coronation medals, crown pieces, siege pieces and Maundy money were exhibited at various times in the Entrance Hall of the Museum. Mr. March presented "The Numismatic Journal" and other books to the Library.

By death, too, the Society has lost Mr. Arthur Greenwood, an Original Proprietary Member for 24 years, and Mr. Edwin Armistead, a subscriber for 39 years, one of the most regular attendants at its lectures.

The Saturday Evening Lectures continue to attract large audiences.

The following is a list of the Lectures:—

"The Golden West," a three months' trip to California. Edgar Lupton.

"Our personal Names and the Story they tell." Professor Moorman, B.A., Ph.D.

"Air and Earth as Food for Man." Charles Crowther, Ph.D., M.A.

"Pot-holes of Yorkshire." W. Parsons.

"The Continuity of Art." H. Hildesheim, B.A.

Total number of Visitors:—1,352.

The Curator has continued his series of "Christmas Museum Lectures," which were well attended. The subjects were:—

"The 'Gambier-Bolton' Gift of Photographs of Animal Studies."

"Life among Sand-hills."

"Savage Art."

Total number of Visitors:—702.

The number of visitors to the Museum shews a considerable increase on that of last year, the number for 1912-13 being 18,751, for 1911-12, 16,436, the mean of the last ten years being 19,647. This number does not include the visits of the School Children.

It is gratifying to record an increase this year of over 2,000 more visitors to the Museum than last year, as in the Report for several years it has been stated that the interest in modern attractions had a marked influence in reducing the number of visits made to the Society's collections by the general public.

Mr. Alec. Wormald, the Secretary of the Leeds Schools' Museum Scheme, has furnished the following report :—

“On Friday, September 20th, 1912, Mr. Crowther delivered a Lecture to a good gathering of Teachers on “In the Woods,” the choice of the Leeds Schools' Museum Committee for the Twelfth Session of the Scheme.

Alderman W. H. Clarke, Chairman of the Education Committee, presided, and was supported by Mr. C. T. Whitmell, Ex. H.M.I.S. Mr. Dodgson, and the Officers and Committee of the Scheme.

The first lecture to the children took place on Monday, Sept. 23rd, when Mr. P. L. Gray, H.M.I.S., occupied the chair, and suitably addressed the children. Mr. Frank Shepherd, Chairman of the Committee, and the Secretary were also present, and Mr. T. G. West was the Supervisor.

Up to date, 59 lectures have been given and 13,678 scholars in charge of 336 teachers and drawn from 138 departments have visited the Museum.

Five more lectures are yet to be given to about 1,090 children representing 12 departments.

The lectures have been extremely successful. The Supervisors' reports have, in every case, spoken in glowing terms of the lecture and the magnificent slides.

The teachers unite with the Management Committee in thanking Mr. Crowther and Miss Crowther for their splendid work in giving many hours of pleasure derived from the lectures in the Museum, and also when they visit the woods and parks, which have now an added interest.

To give emphasis to their thanks the Committee arranged a dinner, with Mr. Crowther as guest, and a record number of teachers representing all grades assembled to do him honour, under the chairmanship of Ald. W. H. Clarke.”

Mr. A. Dodgson reports as follows on the additional gifts to the Numismatic Collection and the work in this department during the past year :—

Attention has been given to the arrangement of the Coins in the new Cabinet Safe purchased recently by several members of the Council and three or four members and subscribers of the Society. Each of the 33 Trays has been numbered and their contents neatly lettered outside in paint by Miss Vera Crowther to facilitate reference.

The gift of 100 Coins from the Bramley Find has been arranged in chronological order, as well as the Coins from Dustan—acquired by gift last year. The duplicate Roman, Grecian, European, American and English Copper Coins, Tokens, &c., have been displayed in the trays, together with 108 Chinese Coins of the Ta-tsing, or Tartar Dynasty of Seven Emperors.

The Fingoes are a relic of a former Kaffir tribe which were driven by conquest to serve as slaves in the Kosa Country, later liberated by England, and settled east of the Great Fish River.

By Mr. Isaac Featherstone, Shipton, two small Rubbing-stones, found when ploughing in the land near Market Weighton.

By Mr. R. T. Wildman, Long Preston, an old Fire Blower and a Holster and Flint Pistol.

By Mr. Alfred Barran, a series of objects from the Congo District, including Executioner's Knife, Mousembi Fringe Dress, Kasai Cup.

The Lecture "In the Woods" given under the Museum Scheme is illustrated by forty-two cases of Special Exhibits, which show the "Structure of Wood," with explanations, "Woods used in making Furniture and in Dyeing," "Woods used in various Trades in the City," "Woods of Familiar Trees," Woods of Cone-bearing Trees," "Cones of Trees," "Barks of Trees," "Herbs of the Undergrowth," "Drawings of Plant Structure." Two cases are devoted to the display, in glass jars, of "Seeds and Seedlings of Trees," and "Poisonous Plants," preserved in formalin. Other cases contain examples of "Injurious Insects," "Fungi," and "Animals destroyed as Vermin."

A new case has been fixed in the north bay of the Bird Room, and in it is displayed a series of Chicks of Woodland Birds. The exhibit has excited considerable interest.

The Birds' Nests acquired last year have been arranged in the Bird Gallery, and a special case of the Nests more recently added to the collections of some of the smaller Birds which are found in the woods, is exhibited in the Bird Room.

Selections from the "Gambier Bolton" gift of photographs of Animals are exhibited in two wall cases on the Staircase.

The re-arrangement and display of the Stone Implements are approaching completion. Properly to free the specimens from the tarry substances which accompany dust, it has been found necessary to wash each individual specimen in a weak solution of ammonia.

A series of Pen and Ink Drawings is being prepared and put in the cases to illustrate the Structure of Worms, Sea-urchins, Starfish and other Invertebrates.

An increased use is being made of the Museum by the outside public. To them considerable time is given in answering inquiries on all kinds of subjects that relate to the Collections. The presence of injurious insects in gardens is followed in many cases by inquiries at the Museum. The artists of the printing trades, who come to make drawings of specimens, and teachers selecting certain types for lessons, are specially helped. The Students of the Medical School continue to make regular visits to examine the specimens, the Students of the City Art School attend frequently in batches to make drawings of the Animals and of the Greek, Roman and Egyptian Pottery. Numerous visits are being made by Scholars (in charge of Teachers) from Schools outside the City, and from Secondary Schools. At the request of a teacher of English History a series of English Pennies from the time of the Conqueror is being displayed in the Coin Case.

No further communication has yet been received from the Town Clerk in relation to a joint arrangement in the interests of the Public and of the Society, as suggested in a letter from him dated April 13th, 1905.
